Jubilee reflections ...

For many people outside of this country, it may have been tempting to look at the crowds in the rain, lining the banks of the Thames and the streets, madly waving their flags to celebrate the Queen's Diamond Jubilee and ask, "What is all the fuss about?" I'll tell you what it is about. Tradition. Like so many things explained by tradition, they can hardly be explained at all — simply felt. So in a time when most of the world has to turn to history books and fairy tales to find the stories of kings and queens, we find ourselves enormously proud to share the joy of the Queen. I hope the Jubilee celebrations gave you all many happy and long lasting memories.

The Secret Gardens of Grayswood, organised by The Friends of All Saints

In spite of the cold, hundreds of visitors flocked to see the Grayswood Gardens which opened their gates for the first time on Sunday 20th May. The stunning displays stood out against the grey skies, and the village buzzed with visitors consulting their beautifully illustrated programmes, and moving between the nine gardens and allotments. The Old Vicarage showed off its pretty rhyll and browsing chickens; the organic garden at Clammer Hill House was a delight, and the \ allotments were bursting with fresh produce. The intimate garden at Clammer View, and the display of alpines at Merano, were an inspiring discovery. The rare Jeffrey's pine at Home Close and the sunken garden at Little Home Close were greatly admired, as was the creative planting at Findings Cottage, and the Cubist pool and pergola at the White House. At Grayswood House, visitors strolled round the landscaped grounds while they listened to the fairground organ. The Chiddingfold Flautists played in the tea garden while the homemade cake stall did a brisk trade, and the stall of plants, donated by villagers, was busy with visitors looking to fill their own gardens. Grayswood Nursery joined in the fun with a Forest School session in the woods above the village. The Wheatsheaf Inn had a special menu for visitors and also gave a generous donation, as did Coco Carmel, Haslemere Garden Centre, and Grayswood Cars. The event, held in aid of the Friends of All Saints raised over £3,000. The Friends would like to thank everyone who gave so generously of their time and skills, and all who came to this joyful event.

Dear Friends

How far do you see?

Most of us, I dare to say, live most of the time in a bubble. We get up, see to the family, go to work, come home, walk the dog, have supper, watch TV and go to bed. Life is simply like that and we often have no time to look beyond it. Sometimes the news might make us look outward, shocking news perhaps of the abuse of a child or young woman, or a gang assault on a youth in the street. Perhaps it's news of an international incident or a global disaster which commands our attention. And we take time to look – and look long and carefully.

Sometimes it's the good that persuades us out of our bubble – like the 60 year long dedication of a Queen on her Diamond Jubilee. Other times the apparently insignificant story catches our attention – the goodness of one human being towards another, the small kindness, the courage, yet again, of dedicated rescue teams.

How far do you see?

You have probably never heard of Peter and Jane Nott. They are a Christian couple who are working with the Church Mission Society, and returned to the UK early in June for a well-earned break from 6 months in Egypt, and before that in Nazareth, where they have been teaching English. They are visiting All Saints at the 10am Service on 22nd July. Bring your (metaphorical!) binoculars and join us as we look a bit further still from our bubble.

With my very best wishes

Barbara

A riddle for the summer:

Can you name three consecutive days without using the words Wednesday, Friday, or Sunday? (answer in the next edition)

ARE YOU A PIANIST? DO YOU HAVE GRADE FIVE or HIGHER? WOULD YOU LIKE TO LEARN TO PLAY THE ORGAN?

Jean White, organist at our lovely church, All Saints, is looking to "train up a pianist" so that we have someone who can help out in an emergency, and gradually play a part in helping to lead the worship with the choir. At the Young Voices Festival held here at All Saints recently, Jean was presented with The Royal School of Church Music's certificate for long service - but this by no means indicated her retirement! We all hope that Jean will continue to play the organ for many more years, but she suggests that it is sensible to explore what options for assistance are available. Particularly Jean is keen to find pianists who would like to learn to play the organ and assist her, and to source experienced organists who would be able to help when necessary.

We have a fine Norman and Beard two-manual organ, and Jean will be happy to guide and support you. As a church, we are members of the Royal School of Church Music which offers training days, courses and assistance. If you are interested and would like to talk about it further, please phone Shirley Richmond on 01428 653285, or email: shirley@srichmond2.orangehome.co.uk

We are a small friendly group of amateur gardeners who meet in Grayswood Village Club, Lower Road, Grayswood several times a year for garden related talks, visits or social events. Generally meetings are on 1st Thursday of the month at 8 pm, but not every month. Our next talk is on Thursday, September 6th at Grayswood Social Club starting at 7.45pm. John Baker will be talking on "Heavenly Hostas". Apart from an informative talk, he will also share his secret for deterring slugs from chomping through your Hostas!

On Thursday 4th October, again at Grayswood Social Club, John Wood, Head Gardener at the National Trust property, Hinton Ampner, will be talking about "The Restoration of the Walled Garden". New members are very welcome at both of these events. Entry £2.50.
