6.30 pm Evensong for Open Gardens

Next Sunday: 10 am Parish Communion

In June, we pray for:

Our Church: The Anglican Church in Aotearoa, New Zealand and Polynesia
Our Diocese: growth in the number of younger people in our parishes, and also our diversity in every way to ensure we better reflect the communities we serve.
Our quarterly mission: Church Mission Society
Our village: worshippers beyond the parish boundary
Individuals in particular need: Jane T, Jan F-D, Naomi, Andrew and baby Abigail, Fiona T, Joanne T, Eugene, Jasmin, Rhys, Rita, Mavis, those caring for others, those known to us, and only to God

Anniversaries in June:

Baptisms: Hugo Woodgate, Oscar Fry, Amelie Fry
Marriages: Thomas and Alice
Deaths: Edith Mitchell, Brian Holmes

Modern Day Slavery – this morning we welcome Allison Sutcliffe, Modern Day Slavery Advisor to Guildford Diocese. Learning about this important topic is the first step towards stopping slavery.

“William Wilberforce convinced his generation that Slavery was a sin. This belief has not changed. The sin now lies in our ignorance to its existence around us.”
Justin Welby, Archbishop of Canterbury.

Open Gardens - Thank you to all those who have helped with Open Gardens Today

Care Companion at End of Life - Talk by Daphne Bleach at Saint Columba’s House, Maybury Hill, Woking, Surrey GU22 8AB on Monday 12th June - 2 pm to 4 pm; Donations Welcome - Tea & Coffee included. Like to know more about caring for your loved one when they become dependent on you through illness, or frailty, at end of life, should they choose to die at home? This informal informative talk offers an understanding to the changing stages when someone is deteriorating and how best to care for and vigil the dying. See flyer for more details www.stcolumbushouse.org.uk

Morning Prayer - Join us for a short service from the Northumbria Community with a time of reflection and intercession on Wednesdays from 9-9.30 in the North Transept.

Joining on zoom - Sunday Services are now set as a recurring meeting
