London 100 – Greg and his daughter Jess are taking on the 'London 100' a 100-mile cycle challenge today (May 26th 2024).

At the time of writing our supporters had raised nearly £1500 but there is still time to make that last minute donation for Skillway www.gofundme.com/f/greg-jess-take-on-ride-london-100-for-skillway or there is a form at the back of church

Church Mission Society – is our quarterly mission.

The latest Mission Letter is on the board. Please pray for the work of Katia Rocks and give generously to her work in Brazil.

Morning Prayer: Join us for a short service from the Northumbria Community with a time of reflection and intercession on Wednesdays 9-9.30 in the North Transept.

Parish Giving Scheme: Please consider giving regularly to the church by Direct Debit. It is very easy to do online parishgiving.org.uk/donors/find-your-parish/ then enter All Saints Grayswood and click on give now. Or you can call 0333 002 1271

One off giving: If you would like to donate to the work of the church here in Grayswood today, please use the card reader or place your cash/cheque on the wooden collection plate. If you can Gift Aid, please complete a yellow envelope or select the option on the card reader.

Are you struggling with finances? Or for food? We may be able to help you and/or obtain a voucher for the food bank. Please email revfigwynn@gmail.com or call 07769 856343 in strict confidence. We are here to help so please don't suffer in silence.

Office closed next week as Sarah is working from home during half term – back on June 3rd
