Grayshurst — historic photographs and memories wanted. Do you have any old photographs, documents or memories of Grayshurst on Highercombe Road? The house was designed by Axel Haig as his own home. Haig also designed our own All Saints' Church, Grayswood, and carried out much of its interior carving. We would love to hear from anyone who can help piece together the house's history. Photographs showing the house and gardens at any date, or information about former residents and changes over the years, would be warmly welcomed. Please contact Fiona Jopp on 07961 445026 if you can help.
